Visitor's top tips

|| The best fish & chips are at Troon Harbour, the Wee Hurrie – try the salmon, homemade fish cakes or even Lobster!

Visit the Tam O Shanter for good food, and of course connections to the famous Robbie Burns.

Easy walk along the river into Ayr town centre.

Take a drive down the stunning coast road A719 to Dunure, quaint 19th century harbour and castle ruins.

Ayr beach is walking distance, or a short drive away, and is great for the dogs.

Dumfries House and the gardens were very interesting.

Plenty of history in the town. Follow the walk and there are information plaques to tell all.

Culzean Castle (National Trust) is a must! It's a great day out.

We visited the Isle of Arran, via ferry from Ardrossan, well worth a visit. **||
