Walk

8 Local routes

The site is surrounded by farmland and lochs, including Loch Leven, so it's easy to find routes to explore. The East and West Lomond hills are a great starting point with trails for all abilities. There is also plenty of walking along the Fife coastline.

9 RSPB Vane Farm

Visit RSPB Vane Farm at Loch Leven to explore the wetlands dotted with bird hides.

Cycle

10 Local routes

The open, hilly terrain combined with pockets of woodland is a mountain biker's dream. Try the Glenrothes Circular, starting at Balbirnie Street car park.

11 National Cycle Network

Route 1 (Dover to Shetland) is the nearest route.

Explore

12 St Andrews

Seaside university town, famous for its castle and as the home of golf.

13 Loch Leven

Discover Lochleven Castle, where Mary Queen of Scots was imprisoned and explore the nature reserve on its shores.

14 Perth

Scotland's ancient capital, now a cosmopolitan gem.

Visitor's top tips

|| The RSPB Reserve at Loch Leven was amazing – we had never seen Ospreys before, so that was fabulous.

The park next to the site is a lovely place to walk the dog and is kept in first class condition.

If you like Chinese food then there's a fantastic takeaway called 'Grace' about a 4 minute walk into Markinch village.

It's not far to the coast and some lovely little fishing villages, and stunningly beautiful beaches too.

If you like golf you'll be happy, there are too many courses in the area to pick a favourite.

Take the train from Markinch into Edinburgh for a day out.

We had some lovely walks in the Lomond Hills.

Take the Street Train tour around St Andrews.

Visit Markinch's 12th century church, the tower has medieval masons markings. ||
