Visitor's top tips

There are excellent shops and places to eat close by in Wellington. Look out for food fair in September.

We took the steam train to Minehead and had a lovely walk along the coast path before returning on the train.

Sunday lunch at the Green Dragon pub is a must.

Excellent cycle route alongside the great western canal to Tiverton.

Take a stroll through Wellington Park, if you visit in the summer there are often events happening.

Walk or drive from site to the Wellington Monument. It's well signposted from the town and only about four miles away.

A lovely walk by the old canal were you will find the remains of the first lift locks in the county.
