

CL of the Year 2004 Overall Winners

1st Place:- Stoneyways, Woodbridge, Suffolk

Roy and Hilda Griggs began operating their CL some seventeen years ago. Stoneyways covers around two acres and includes a duck pond with Monet style bridge together with a goldfish pond. The site attracts a large variety of birds who are frequent visitors.

2nd Place:- Leadketty, Dunning, Perthshire

This picturesque CL has a two acre pond and two islets which are home to twenty pairs of mallard and a few pairs of moorhens and coots. Other sightings include Kingfishers and Ospreys have been seen fishing the pond which supports rainbow and brown trout.

3rd Place:- Hillcroft, Hill Lane, Kilgetty

The picturesque and peaceful site is set in approximately two and a quarter acres and surrounded with countryside and sea views. The popular seaside resorts of Tenby and Saundersfoot, both with beautiful sandy beaches, are only a very short distance away.
