Get to know your site

London is the lure here. The number three bus takes you directly to central London, via Westminster, Trafalgar Square and Piccadilly. Popular with families from Europe during the summer months, this is a busy, but friendly, site on the edge of a pleasant park with many attractions for children.

London is a city for all seasons, so you can avoid the queues by avoiding the summer months - half terms are good times for families with children. Events out of season include the Ideal Home Exhibition in March and don't forget the Christmas lights, a good excuse for festive shopping from mid-November to bargain hunting in early January.

There's so much to see and do - from the Changing of the Guard and the Tower of London to Madame Tussauds, Houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey, museums, theatres, shops and art galleries. The list is endless - you will not be bored!
