Welcome to Freshwater East Caravan Club Site

Get to know your site

Only a few minutes from a beautiful stretch of beach, this site at the bottom of a hill is flanked by trees on one side with a selection of grass and hardstanding tiered pitching areas.

The site is located in the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park, offering fantastic walks along the coastal path with its magnificent cliff top views. A visit to Barafundle Bay (only accessible by foot) and Broadhaven beaches, taking in Bosherton lily ponds is recommended. Or head in the opposite direction to the popular walled town of Tenby with its colourful harbour, sandy beaches and boat trips to Caldey Island.

You will be spoilt for choice for castles to visit in the area – take your pick from Pembroke, Manorbier or Carew with its restored tidal mill and pond.
