Welcome to Blackpool South Caravan Club Site

Get to know your site

The site is level and open, with good screening from the road and in an area that traditionally has a mild, warm climate.

Britain's premier seaside resort provides non-stop amusement for the family from morning to night! Starting with the sands of course, and the famous illuminations (late August to early November), there is also Blackpool Pleasure Beach with The Big One - the tallest, scariest roller coaster in the world and Valhalla and Infusion, the latest terrifying ride to draw visitors. There are seven floors of fun at The Tower and a wide range of attractions and entertainment 365 days a year.

There's horse riding near to the site and walkers should head for Beacon Fell, 40 minutes by car. It's also an ideal touring base for the beautiful Lake District and Yorkshire Dales National Parks.

General site information
