Get to know your site

This is a pretty and quiet site with views up the valley, with some pitches overlooking the River Barle. Within walking distance of the quaint old town of Dulverton with its shops, pubs and restaurants, the site is an ideal location for those seeking a relaxing holiday.

It's a marvellous base to explore Exmoor, one of our loveliest and most approachable

National Parks. The National Park's information centre is nearby, so make that your first call to talk to the helpful staff there. Leave your car behind and explore this walkers' paradise - there are plenty of illustrated leaflets to guide you.

If you're a keen angler, there's Wimbleball Lake, or try fly-fishing at one of the fishing lakes or fisheries.
