

Welcome to

Berwick Seaview Caravan Club Site

Get to know Berwick Seaview

The Club's northernmost site in England combines the spectacular scenery of Northumberland with visits across the border to Scotland. Overlooking the river estuary, the site is only a 30-minute walk into Berwick with its Elizabethan ramparts, shops and places of interest.

Driving along quiet roads, you will discover mile after mile of unspoilt and safe beaches, small castles, pele towers and romantic ruins. The site is good for children because of the clean golden sands at nearby Spittal, with safe bathing and play facilities.

The nearby Ford and Etal estate with steam train, craft workshops and castle nurseries is a popular day out for families. The golf club at Goswick is highly rated as one of the best links courses in the north. The main East Coast railway line passes the site.
