Welcome to Looe Caravan Club Site

Get to know your site

The site has two pitching areas, divided by conifers and flowering cherries, and the overall aspect of the site is of a sloping nature with many of the pitches having distant views of Looe Bay.

With its heated open-air swimming pool, a tennis court, crazy golf and ball game area, there's plenty to do on site.

When you do go out, Looe boasts many fine restaurants and is a place that offers lots of interest including the working fishing harbour (watch the catch come ashore). You can take the children crabbing to Hannafore Rock Pools where there is a marvellous view of Looe Island and the Eden Project is only 40 minutes' drive away.

If you have walkers in the family, the Cornwall Coastal Path runs right around the peninsula going west, and across the border into Devon travelling east.

Bathing off the coast can be dangerous and particular note must be taken of any local notices.

General site information
