

Investing and Contributing to Scottish Tourism

As Europe's premier touring organisation, representing one million caravanners, motor caravanners and trailer tenters, The Caravan Club operates the largest privately-owned network of quality sites in Scotland.

- With around 180 locations across Scotland, The Club offers the equivalent of over two million 'bed nights' per annum
- Every year, Caravan Club members spend more than £18 million in local communities when caravanning in Scotland
- In 2010 The Club is set to invest £1.6 million in site acquisition and development in Scotland
- New to the network, Lochside Caravan Club Site, Forfar, opens in Spring 2010
- Caravan Club members enjoy a variety of outdoor activities from wildlife watching and hill walking, to white-water rafting, skiing and mountain biking
- Nearly 70,000 Club members live in Scotland and make the most of the wide range of exclusive benefits Club membership brings
