

Where to find further advice

If you would like feedback and advice from other club members who have travel overseas, try the overseas discussion area of our website: Club together

Visa requirements passport validity

For information on safety, security, and passport/visa requirements please see: www.fco.gov.uk (click on “travel & living abroad” then use the drop down box to select the countries you are visiting) or telephone 0845 850 2829.

Touring/Camping books

Continental Caravanning is a free brochure which has details of over 200 campsites in Europe that we inspect and can book for you, it is available on our website www.caravanclub.co.uk or by calling 01342 327410.

The Caravan Europe books volume 1 and 2, have details of over 8,000 campsites in Europe, along with legal requirements and advice and information about touring. The books can be ordered via our website www.caravanclub.co.uk (enter “Caravan Europe” into the search bar) or by calling 01342 327410

Vicarious books who are based in Dover stock a large number of touring/camping/caravanning books, including: All the Aires in France (details of over 2,100 motor caravan aires in France), France Passion, which is a collection of Vineyards where motor caravans can overnight free of charge, Camping Morocco, Camping in Greece and the FFCC guide, which lists over 10,000 campsites in France including municipal, farm and aire naturelle sites. All publications can be found on their website: www.vicarious-shop.com or by calling 0131 208 3333

Other information

Tourist Boards can also provide help and information, and a full list of contact details can be found on our website www.caravanclub.co.uk (practical advice/overseas advice)

The following website: www.france-voyage.com has an excellent itinerary planner for travelling in France. From the home page click on the English flag (the top right hand corner), then click on “Customised holiday itineraries” (bottom right hand corner), use the drop down boxes and the website will give you some really good ideas of what to see and do on your holiday.

There are various travel blogs available on line where you can read other caravanners / motor caravanners personal accounts of their travels overseas:

Low season discount schemes

Camping cheques:

Reservations are not made when using Camping Cheques so this scheme gives flexibility of staying at a campsite for several days or moving on after only one night. Camping Cheques can be purchased from the Caravan Club providing you have booked a ferry crossing with us. If you have not booked your ferry crossing with the Caravan Club, you can purchase cheques directly from the Camping Cheque company via their website: www.campingcheques.co.uk or by calling 01580 214 002. Camping cheques are accepted in over 600 campsites in Europe.

ACSI Camping Card

This card is accepted in over 2000 campsites in Europe and the site fees are fixed at €11, €13 or €15 per night. Details of this scheme can be found at www.campingcard.co.uk

How to find campsites

There are numerous websites available on-line:

www.campinggo.com

www.campingfrance.com

www.eurocampings.co.uk - a good site if you are looking for small campsites. This website has an option for you to search for "Great Little Campsites" which have a maximum of 40 touring pitches. There are nearly 1,000 "little" campsites listed in Europe.
