You'll find in more remote areas or the outback of Australia, many more areas that allow overnight camping, than along the populated coast. The areas in the outback are often rest areas – keep your eyes open, as some of these have an area which opens up behind the rest area, so you can get further off the road. Sometimes these might be beside a river, or overlooking a nice view.

Southern Africa

Become a true adventurer and explore the safari plains, winding rivers, towering mountains and crystal clear lagoons of Southern Africa...

Discover magnificent, magical and mysterious landscapes, filled with extraordinary wildlife, glistening salt pans, fertile floodplains and fascinating people.

Stopovers and Airline options

Upgrade your flight and travel in style, or extend the trip of a lifetime by breaking your journey with a stopover on route. Most of our Southern Africa tours offer direct flights from the UK, but for A Tale of Three Countries, stopovers in Cape town and Johannesburg are available.

Johannesburg

Stopover in Johannesburg and discover just how many reasons there are to stay in the city. Lose yourself in the huge malls and check out the trendy suburb of Melville, where there's a wealth of coffeehouses and bars to investigate. If you're interested in culture, you'll find plenty in Jo'burg. Find out about the country's turbulent history at the Apartheid Museum and experience township life in Soweto.

Cape Town

Cape Town is one of the world's most beautiful cities, crowned by the magnificent Table Mountain National Park. From almost any vantage point, there's a mountain or an ocean in view, and often both. The weather is notoriously fickle, but that just reminds of the variety of things to do. If it's too cloudy to hike on the mountain, then there's art galleries, wineries and beaches. Swim with a penguin, burrow deep into the city's history, or just walk along cobblestone streets and take it all in.
