Walk

Cleveland Way

7 Cleveland Way

Spanning over 109 miles of dramatic coastline and heather moorland, this breath-taking trail is scattered with ancient castles, quaint fishing villages and tiny coves with spectacular views.

8 Flamborough Head

A beautiful and relaxing circular walk which takes in the coastal path between the South and North Landing; this passage is also great for birdwatching.

Cycle

9 North Yorkshire Moors National Park

A fantastic location for all types of cyclist, there are three dedicated cycling routes and miles of incredibly scenic forest tracks, disused railway lines and pretty country roads to explore.

10 National Cycle Routes

Cinder Track is a 21-mile route which begins in Scarborough and takes in Hayburn Wyke, Robin Hood's Bay and Larpool Viaduct before ending in Whitby. This is a part of National Cycle Route 1.

Visitor's TOP TIPS

A village shop, lovely pub and fish & chip shop are within really easy reach from site.

The Star is a lovely little dog-friendly pub serving excellent food.

We loved the walk to Cayton Bay Beach (dog-friendly), it was absolutely stunning and is around 20 minutes away from site.

Definitely head to Robin Hood's Bay, a gorgeous fishing village with a sandy dog-friendly beach, quaint cobbled streets and lots of cafés, pubs and boutique shops to enjoy.

The Rotunda Museum in Scarborough has fascinating exhibits and makes a brilliant half-day out.

Peasholm Park is a beautiful spot to walk the dog (on a lead!), with a unique oriental theme and unusual trees.

If you like motorcycle racing, head to Oliver's Mount, England's only natural 'road' race track.

The North Bay Miniature Railway is fantastic for families (dogs are allowed too), running only on weekends; here, you'll also find the Skytrail Adventure and the smallest pub in Yorkshire.

The Foxhound Inn is a welcoming, cosy pub serving fresh, great-quality food.

Visit the nearby towns of Whitby and Bridlington for days out by the seaside.

If you have time, head up to York for the day, it's an hours drive away and offers so much to see and do.
