Things to do

1 Cape Wrath

See some of Britain's highest cliffs, seals and wildlife and the spectacular Cape Wrath Lighthouse at Scotland's most north-westerly point.

2 Ferrycroft Countryside Centre

Beside the renowned archaeological site Ord Hill and surrounded by forest, a great base for discovering wildlife and history.

3 Strathnaver Museum

Discover the area's vibrant culture and mythical past, inherited from Norse and Gaelic ancestors.

4 Bird Watching

From mountain top to sea shore, this is a first class area for birdwatching. RSPB Forsinard Reserve is nearby and thrives with bird life in summer.

5 Fishing

Members staying on site may fly fish from the shore, and also row, sail or paddle your own boat on Loch Naver.

6 Clay pigeon shooting

Visit one of Big Shoots 150 locations at Altass to experience the thrills of cracking clays.

7 Clo Mor

See the highest sea cliff on the British mainlands (900 feet), offering spectacular sweeping views and abundant birdlife.

8 Lairg

With views of lush green hills and snow capped mountains, this peaceful village is nestled on the southern shores of Loch Shin.

Walk

Ben Klibreck, Ben Hee, Ben Hope, Ben Loyal and Ben Griam Mor are amongst the hills which can be viewed from the observation cairn, 20 minutes walk from the site, and explored.

Cycle

The Highlands has been recognised by the International Mountain Bike Association as one of the great biking destinations and offers an abundance of trails, forest and wilderness riding to suit all levels and abilities.
