Visitor's top tips

II In the winter months see the Starling murmurations around West Pier at dusk, amazing!

Brighton Sea Life centre is well worth a visit, especially on a wet day.

Cycle to Rottingdean or Shoreham on the undercliff path, it's a lovely route.

Take a walk into the centre of Brighton via the quirky shops and cafes of Kemptown.

Don't forget your bikes to cycle into town along the seafront.

For a great atmosphere, visit the Lanes. Marvellous eclectic experience with some little treasures in a quirky mix of shops, bars, and cafes.

You can walk down toward the marina and hop on a bus into town and then pick a number 7 to the marina, where there is a big Asda and lots of good restaurants. We then got a taxi back to save on parking.

Rock pooling with young children anywhere between the marina and Rottingdean. II
