Explore

13 Brighton

A bohemian seaside city with so much to offer; discover quirky shops in the lanes, shop in Churchill Square, walk along the pier, head up the i360 or visit the grand Royal Pavilion.

14 Eastbourne

This charming coastal town is famous for its stunning scenery, from sun-kissed beaches and spectacular Beachy Head, to ancient woodlands and verdant hillside.

Brighton

Visitor's top tips

There's plenty of National Trust properties in the area – don't miss Bateman's, where Rudyard Kipling lived.

Visit Arlington Reservoir near Berwick, it's designated as a Site of Special Scientific Interest.

Spend the day at Charleston Farmhouse, home of the Bloomsbury Group.

The bandstand at Eastbourne has concerts at weekends and fireworks every Wednesday throughout the summer. Pay to enter the bandstand, or take a blanket and listen from the beach.

There are lots of great pubs close by, we particularly liked the Six Bells in Chiddingfold and The Gun Inn at Gun Hill.

Spend a day in the beautiful Alfriston Village, where you can see a famous church and clergy house, alongside galleries, cafés, pubs and boutiques.

The Seven Sisters and Beachy Head are utterly spectacular sights to behold.

There's an abundance of fantastic towns to explore from here, including Hastings, Eastbourne, Lewes and Brighton.
