Walk

8 Loch Brora

You can walk for miles along the beautiful beach. Also from Brora, head for Loch Brora and then return to the village along the riverside.

9 Golspie

In Golspie, the Big Burn waterfall walk takes you through woodland and across bridges. It sits beneath Ben Braggie – a steep climb but a fantastic hill walk.

Explore

11 Golspie

An attractive seaside village boasting a gorgeous sandy beach, beautiful walking trails and historic buildings, including St Andrews Church and Dunrobin Castle.

12 Wick

Featuring an excellent museum and pretty harbour, this heritage town is steeped in history; Home to a vibrant shopping centre and lots of lovely cafés, independent shops and restaurants.

Cycle

10 Mountain biking

Highland Wildcat specialises in mountain bike trails. They have prepared three mountain bike routes around the area that are suitable for different levels of ability.

Visitor's top tips

II We saw so much wildlife – otters on the River Brora and seals and Arctic Terns on the beach, we even spotted dolphins off the coast.

Panning for gold at Strath of Kildonan was a great day out for kids.

Watch the sunrise on the beach, it's definitely worth the early start.

There's a fantastic golf course located directly behind site – be sure to pack your clubs!

The community market at Dornoch has lots of interesting stalls.

Walk up to the nearby Clynelish Distillery for a tour and tasting.

Brora Village is a lovely area with lots of cafés, restaurants and history; we loved the museum and Heritage Trail.

Badbea Clearance Village is a very interesting but moving attraction, with a striking memorial and the crumbling remains of scattered stone cottages.

The Royal Marine Hotel is lovely for an evening meal or afternoon tea.

The nearest pub to the campsite is the Sutherland Inn. II
