Visitor's top tips

|| The village of Carnon Downs is an easy walk away and has a well-stocked SPAR shop.

The Royal Oak Pub is a must. We had an exceptionally good meal there.

Try the Norway or The Old Quay Inn at Devoran both dog friendly and great food and drink too.

The location of the campsite is great, only a 40-minute drive from the Lizard Point and St Michael's Mount. St. Ives is nearby and the Roseland Peninsula is only 10 minutes away via the King Harry Car Ferry.

Trelissick Gardens are a 5-minute drive. Walking the coast path or the beautiful Fal River Estuary means that walkers are really spoiled for choice. Truro with its cathedral is also worth a visit for shoppers and town lovers.

Other local days out include Bissoe Coast to Coast Bike Ride, dog walk to Old Quay Inn, Farmers Markets in Falmouth (Tue) and Truro (Wed, Sat), and feeding ducks at Malpas.

There are dog friendly local beaches at Carne (lead only), Crantock, Fistral and Little Fistral, Holywell Bay Loe Beach and Mawgan Porth.

There is a coffee shop open each day and a small bar at night. While we were there they had some evening entertainment as well as some visiting food vans which seemed very popular. **||
