Visitor's top tips

Matlock Bath

Carsington Water 's Fly Fishing by boat is one of the best in the Country.

Ashbourne is nice for a visit, with plenty of shops and coffee shops. Visit the Tourist Information and book on the guided tour which explains a little about the history of the place.

Visit Wetton Mill Farm, where you can enjoy the tea shop, kids can paddle in the stream, and you can walk to Thor's cave - a little known treasure with great views and clambering for younger members of the family.

Derby pottery is about a 30 minutes drive away but is worth a visit.

Go for a picnic by the water, there is good playground facilities for the kids.

The Knockerdown pub is excellent value for money and the food is tasty. It is also pet friendly.

Carsington Reservoir has a great cycle path and can also be walked around, the bluebells in early may were amazing.

Matlock Bath is Derbyshire's answer to inland sea side.

Cromford Mills is a great day out for the family, part of the Derwent Valley Mills UNESCO Heritage Site. Enjoy interactive displays, captivating stories, guided tours plus cafes and shops.
