Visitor's top tips

Becketts Farm Shop and Restaurant is a 10-minute walk and worth a visit. They serve great breakfast, plus Members receive 10% discount. Becketts Farm also do great adult cookery classes.

Visit Birmingham and Stratford-upon-Avon using the park and ride facility at Whitlock's End.

From the Bullring at one end of Birmingham City Centre to the town hall at the other, visit the museums, theatres, cathedrals, and the heart of Britain's canal network.

Buy fresh meat and fish at the market near the Bullring in Birmingham.

The Transport Museum next to the site is great, particularly for children as the little train was loved by all.

Walk the Woodpecker 6 mile trail from the Lickey Hills visitor centre.

If you are a National Trust member this campsite is a must, there's so much to do in the area.

For cricket fans, Edgbaston is nearby or Sarehole Mill is a must for Tolkien fans.

Warwick is a very delightful town within easy reach.
