Visitor's top tips

|| Don't miss the farmers markets in Axbridge and Wells, you'll find some lovely local produce.

The White Hart in the centre of Cheddar village is really worth a visit. Freshly cooked meals, reasonably priced and wonderful service.

The Bath Arms is walkable and good for an evening meal. Take a torch and bear in mind there are no footpaths on the main road for a stretch.

Wells Cathedral is stunning, it's a must see. Attend the magical evensong, the choir are excellent.

The Cheddar Cheese company in Cheddar Gorge a must visit, and make sure that you have a pasta made in the local deli.

Cheddar Gorge has fantastic views and is well worth the walk. Go for cream tea in Holly's tea rooms.

Gough's Cave located in Cheddar Gorge is brilliant. We all loved using the audioguide, even the kids! **||
