Visitor's top tips

|| Making use of the park and ride by Chester zoo is a great way to visit the city centre, or why not walk along the canal tow path?
Lovely site for a city break and shopping!

For a coastal fix, visit the nearby towns of West Kirby, Hoylake and New Brighton.

There's plenty of wonderful cycling on miles of off-road tracks and country lanes – rides do involve a busy road for a portion of the route.

Port Sunlight is only 10 minutes away well worth a visit.

Chester Cathedral and the town. A walk round the city wall, and along the river are well worth it.

The site is only an hours drive away from Great Orme Head, the tram ride up and down is worth the journey.

If you love to shop, the site is only a short walk to Cheshire oaks designer village. **||
