Visitor's top tips

II The No. 3 Bus will take you into the centre of London via Lambeth and Houses of Parliament before terminating at Whitehall/Horse Guards Avenue.

The Farmers Market on Sundays in Crystal Palace Park sells local produce, local beer, fresh baked bread and cakes.

Try the Parkrun at 9am on Saturday in the adjacent park.

The park makes a lovely couple of hours away from the hustle and bustle and the dinosaurs (being restored to full glory) are a must.

The site is excellent for getting into London. Public transport with an Oyster Card or Travel Card is great and cheap. You can get the DLR to Greenwich quite easily.

The RAF museum at Hendon is a must if you like military aviation, it is best to use the Northern tube line. II
