Visitor's top tips

|| In Inverness, use the Old Town Rose Street car park – it's not suitable for motorhomes.

A visit to Inverness Botanic gardens is a must, with free entry.

Visit Chanonry Point on Black Isle to see the dolphins as the tide is starting to come in.

Visit the local Distillery at Muir of Ord, fantastic visit and a rare chance to try a dram of Singleton.

Visit some of the beautiful stately homes and castles in the area.

Lossiemouth Beach is absolutely stunning.

Fort George is a must-see in the area.

There are lots of beautiful dog walks in the area, from the woodlands next to site to Nairns Beach.

We had such a lovely day out at the RZSS Wildlife Park, where you can see a diverse range of animals from tigers, arctic foxes and polar bears to snowy owls, red squirrels, camels and leopards.

There are some fantastic golf courses near to site – be sure to pack your clubs! **||
