Visitor's top tips

|| Try visiting Blakeley Stone Circle just before sundown, you may get to walk amongst the wild horses.

Cogra Moss is a great evening walk and very good for fishing. Buttermere, Loweswater, Ennerdale and Crummock Water are all easily accessible from site.

Visit Ennerdale Brewery for lovely food at the Brewery Tap cafe.

Visit Cockermouth, the birthplace of William Wordsworth and a lovely old market town.

We had a lovely cream tea on the Ravenglass Railway.

The Lakes Distillery Tour is fantastic.

There's a public footpath just outside of site which is perfect for dog walks.

The Beacon Museum in Whitehaven is very interesting.

St Bees Village is beautiful, located on the most westerly point of Cumbria.

The Lake District Osprey Centre is such a lovely visit.

Wigton is a lovely market town lots of quaint book shops.

If you have the time, definitely make a visit to Penrith or Carlisle. **||
