Visitor's top tips

|| Edinburgh park run every Saturday at Cramond beach – only 10 minutes walk from the site is really welcoming.

Enjoy the stunning walk along the shores of the River Forth with cafés and a pub on route.

The Royal Botanic Gardens, are breathtaking at any time of year.

If the tide is out you can walk across the causeway to Cramond Island, but take note of the sign telling you the safe (low tide) times to do this, and make sure you allow enough time to cross back.

We cycled to a fascinating cave tour out at Gilmerton Cove.

The Scottish National Museum is fantastic. We visit every time we are in Edinburgh and we still haven't seen everything.

There is a lovely walk along the river, which is very popular with families and dog walkers. Within 2 miles along this walk is the village of Cramond, a village with a cosy pub and river walk.

Would highly recommend the East Fortune Airfield and Museum of Flight. ||
