Explore

10 Carlisle

Steeped in history, this vibrant city offers an abundance of fantastic sights and attractions, alongside an eclectic mix of shops, art galleries and museums.

11 Penrith

This attractive town is one of Cumbria's hidden gems, home to gorgeous scenery, historic sites and a wealth of independent little shops, as well as a monthly market.

Visitor's top tips

|| You can learn so much about Hadrian's Wall and the Roman occupation. Visit the Roman Army Museum and Vindolanda ruins.

A visit to Hartside Fell near Alston worth the journey and the view from the top was spectacular.

There are lovely walks straight from the site. You can walk through the woods and down a lane into the next village, where there is a pub serving good food.

The nearby animal sanctuary is lovely, and the café there serves a delicious cup of tea and cake!

This site is great if you're a dog owner, with lots of great facilities, scenic walks and dog-friendly pubs nearby.

The Larch Cottage Nurseries gardens are absolutely beautiful, and the terraced restaurant is delightful.

The Tully House Museum & Art Gallery is a lovely visit for all the family.

Lanercost Priory is beautifully-preserved and carries a fascinating but often violent history.

High Stand Forest offers beautiful scenery and birdwatching. **||
