Things to do

1 Carlisle Castle

A 930 year-old medieval fortress built to guard the border against Scotland. Famous for hosting Mary Queen of Scots, enduring the most sieges in England and a 12th Century stone keep with prison carvings.

2 Dalemian Mansion and Historic Gardens

A stunning estate featuring a mix of Medieval, Tudor and Georgian architecture. Famous for hosting the World Marmalade Awards with an RHS garden.

3 South Tynedale Railway

A narrow-gauge heritage railway in running for 5 miles through the scenic South Tyne Valley. Offering popular tourist rides, a visitor centre and a museum.

4 Hadrian's Wall

This World Heritage Site is a 73 mile long, 15 foot high and 10 foot wide stone and turf frontier built from 122 AD to define the Roman Empire's north-western edge.

5 The Big Shoot – Hexham

Everyone can enjoy the hilariously fun and competitive thrills of Clay Pigeon Shooting.

6 National Archery – Carlisle

Try your hand at archery – the perfect activity for all ages and athletic abilities and great fun!

7 Carlisle

Steeped in history this vibrant city acts as the main cultural and commercial hub near the Scottish border – known as the 'Border City'.

8 Penrith

One of Cumbria's hidden gems, this attractive market town known for distinctive red sandstone buildings, a wealth of independent little shops, a monthly market and a bustling yet traditional atmosphere.

Walk

The Eden Valley riverside walk is highly recommended. And can be accessed in both directions from the site.

The High Stand Plantation's entrance is by the site. Beautiful walks of various lengths can be followed around the forest plus fishing in the lakes – permits can be purchased from the reception.

Cycle

The nearest National Cycle Network route to site is 72: Kendal to Newcastle-upon-Tyne, part of Hadrian's Cycleway.
