Surrounding Golf Courses

Foodies must try the local delicacy, Forfar Bridies - a delicious meat pasty in a shortcrust pastry. The local Saddlers Bakery serves great ones!

There are a lot of lovely glens to explore in the surrounding area.

Visit Arbroath and Lunan Bay.

The Osnaburg Inn is dog friendly and provides a good bar lunch.

Meffan Museum in Forfar is small but very interesting. Aberlemno has several Pictish stones beside the road and another in the church yard.

A day out to Dundee is a must.

The site is very well-placed for walking in the Angus Glens.

The Loch is a wonderful area for dog walks - we used this route every day!

Take a day out on the Caledonian Heritage Steam Railway, running between Brechin and Bridge of Dun - we packed a picnic too which was lovely.

We had the best fish & chips at the local North Street Chip Shop.

The village is only a short walk from site which is ideal.

There are plenty of fantastic golf courses nearby.
