9 National Cycle Network

The nearest route is Penarth to Holyhead, Route 8.

Wildlife, Bird Watching and Fishing

The site and surrounding area is abundant with wildlife and birds, including the Red Kite.

Within a 30 mile radius of you can visit Gilfach Farm Nature Reserve, Gigrin Farm Red Kite feeding station, Carnhafalit RSPB and Lake Vyrnwy RSPB, also Ynys Hir (BBC Nature Watch), and the Dyfi Osprey Centre.

There is very good fishing in both reservoirs and rivers. Permits can be obtained from the Post Office at Cemmaes Road and further information from the Fisheries Officer at Llanbrynmair.

Explore

10 Aberystwyth

Home to a mile-long Victorian promenade, Wales' oldest pier and the longest cliff railway in Britain, this historic seafront town has something for everyone to enjoy.

11 Machynlleth

Set in the heart of the UNESCO-Listed Dyfi Biosphere, this pretty market town has plenty of unique shops, art galleries and cosy cafes, in addition to a local market.

Visitor's top tips

I I recommend a visit to the street market on Wednesdays at nearby Machynlleth.

Borth beach and sand dunes are a must as are the lakes in the hills near by. This is a really stunning area of Wales!

Bird lovers must visit Ynys Hir RSPB reserve, the Osprey centre and the Red Kite feeding station at Rhayader.

Take the Vale of Rheidol railway from Aberystwyth to Devils Bridge.

This site is set in a fantastic location for exploring Southern Snowdonia.

Keep a lookout for wildlife on site!

The National Trust's Powis Castle & Garden is a lovely visit, surrounded by spectacular natural beauty.

Visit Halo Honey Ice Cream Factory in Tawyn, it's a great day out for the family.

We enjoyed walking the dog around the Hafren Forest, offering lots of scenic and tranquil trails.

Spend a day on the Talylln steam Railway, the world's oldest preserved railway, which leads you through the stunning Fathew Valley in Snowdonia.

Discover the breath-taking Rheidol Valley, home to a magnificent reservoir. I
