Visitor's TOP TIPS

I recommend a visit to the street market on Wednesdays at nearby Machynlleth.

Borth beach and sand dunes are a must as are the lakes in the hills near by. This is a really stunning area of Wales!

Bird lovers must visit Ynys Hir RSPB reserve, the Osprey centre and the Red Kite feeding station at Rhayader.

Take the Vale of Rheidol railway from Aberystwyth to Devils Bridge.

This site is set in a fantastic location for exploring Southern Snowdonia.

Keep a lookout for wildlife on-site!

The National Trust's Powis Castle & Garden is a lovely visit, surrounded by spectacular natural beauty.

Visit Halo Honey Ice Cream Factory in Tawyn, it's a great day out and the kids will love it.

We enjoyed walking the dog around the Hafren Forest, offering lots of scenic and tranquil trails.

Spend a day on the Talylyn steam Railway, the world's oldest preserved railway, which leads you through the stunning Fathew Valley in Snowdonia.

Discover the breath-taking Rheidol Valley, home to a magnificent reservoir.
