Visitor's top tips

|| 'The Chippy' shop in Hawes serves excellent, fresh fish & chips.

Visit the Kettlewell Scarecrow Festival in August.

Get up early on a Tuesday and walk up into town for the market, offering a good range of fresh food and produce.

Head to the White Scar Cave for a guided tour – it covers around 1 mile over 80 minutes and is phenomenal!

A walk from site to Hardraw Force is a must, it's mostly flat so is quite easy.

There are several dog-friendly pubs and cafés in the local area; the White Hart Inn and Green Dragon are lovely.

Malham Cove is a spectacular sight to behold, towering over 230 feet!

Ideal for motorhomes, just a short walk into Hawes for unique shops, restaurants, pubs, and a bus service to Northallerton, Bedale and Leyburn.

The Ribbleshead Viaduct is a must-see in Yorkshire, the photography opportunities are fantastic!

Hawes Ropemakers is an interesting visit, as is the Dales Countryside Museum.

Malham Tarn is glorious, offering a marvellous setting for walking and cycling. **||
