Walk

9 Local walks

From the site entrance a 2 mile walk will bring you to Mansands Beach, where you can join the coastal path.

Cycle

Newton Abbot to Brixham

This route starts near Newton Abbot train station and heads south east along future NCN route 28 towards Torquay, then along the coastal path to Paignton and then onto Brixham breakwater.

Explore

10 Torquay

Has a marina, variety of shops and a theatre.

11 Dartmouth

There is no better place to immerse in Devon's local produce, from seafood to ice cream and fudge.

12 Paignton

Home to a long stretch of beautiful beach, a promenade and traditional pier, this town is a jewel of the English Riviera.

Visitor's top tips

|| The local beaches and coastline are beautiful, particularly Elberry Cove where you can walk your dog all year round.

Walk into Dartmouth and you have the option to walk back the same way or return on the lower ferry.

Crab fishing in Brixham harbour is a must, it's great fun with children.

The walk to Berry Head and Brixham via the bridleway next door and the coast path is stunning.

The pasty shop at Brixham harbour is awesome.

We went to the Brixham Steam Fair and had a wonderful day. There was entertainment for all ages, including for under 10 year olds.

Brixham's pirate festival is on in early May and is great fun.

We really enjoyed the model village in Torquay which is a must for all visitors. Brixham is a very nice village to visit as well as Dartmouth.

The National Trust's Castle Drogo is brilliant.

Visit the WW2 Museum in Brixham – it's fascinating. **||
