Explore

10 Weston-super-Mare

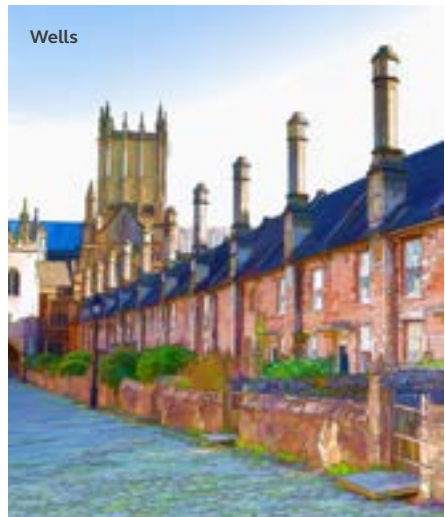

This characterful seaside town is home to a long stretch of pretty beach, a great shopping centre and lovely pier.

11 Bath

A unique city which combines vibrant culture with a rich history.

12 Wells

England's smallest city with a glorious Cathedral and impressive Bishop's Palace in it's medieval centre.

Wells

Visitor's top tips

|| Try the cycling route 33 Brean Down way, it's 8 miles to Weston-Super-Mare.

For shopping fans, Clarks shopping village is only 20 miles away and great for finding a bargain on top brands.

A visit to Brean Down should not be missed. It's well worth walking to the top for the views over Weston-super-Mare and Burnham, and there's a coffee shop at the bottom.

Burnham-on-Sea is a lovely visit for the family, with gorgeous sandy beaches, superb shopping and lots to see and do!

This is a good site for birdwatching on the Somerset Levels.

The West Somerset Steam Railway is a wonderful day out, taking you through the glorious countryside and coast.

We loved that fresh fish & chips were delivered to site on Wednesdays and Fridays – was a nice break from cooking!

There are lots of dog-friendly attractions and places to eat/drink in the area, as well as some fantastic dog walks.

Our favourite National Trust sites included Tyntesfield, Coleridge Cottage and Dunster Castle.

The Helicopter Museum in Weston was very interesting. ||
