Visitor's top tips

II Visit Berwyn Mountains and Pistyll Rhaeadr, the highest waterfall in Wales.

Walk or cycle along the Llangollen canal to Chirk Aqueduct or to Pontcysyllte Aqueduct the other. Both feats of engineering designed and built by Thomas Telford.

The Iron Age Fort at Oswestry is an interesting day out.

The walk to Chirk Castle is lovely through the sheep field and the woods, then around the grounds.

Visit in spring to see the beautiful bluebells.

We enjoyed climbing Dinas Bran in Llangollen, there are fantastic views.

Oswestry is a nice market town and Wrexham is good to visit and easy to get to by train.

We enjoyed the British Ironwork Sculpture Park in Oswestry.

The local butchers in the town has great local produce with a fantastic greengrocers next door.

Chester was an interesting place to visit with it's Roman history, wonderful shops and a great river cruise. II
