Visitor's top tips

Lanhydrock House

Introduce the children to crabbing at Looe Harbour – fun for all the family!

Treddinick Farm Shop is only 2 miles away with fresh fruit, vegetables and cider. The Puerly Cornish Shop & Deli and Quayside Fresh are also great.

The Eden Project and Lost Gardens of Heligan are a must. Also, in October, the Eden Project holds a fantastic beer festival.

The coastal path from Looe to Talland Bay and then on to Polperro is a great walk. You can return by bus or boat.

We had the best fish & chips from The Cuddy Shack.

There are lots of lovely seasonal events in the area, and a wonderful Craft Market every other month.

Definitely take the Looe Island Guided Walk, it's fantastic! (must pre-book)

The St Austell Brewery Experience was really enjoyable, and we also loved the cider shop near to site.

Our favourite dog-friendly beaches were Hannafore, Seaton and Talland Bay.

Visit the Charlestown Shipwreck & Heritage Centre, showcasing lots of interesting maritime exhibits.

The National Trust's Lanhydrock House is spectacular, well-worth a visit.
