Visitor's top tips

|| Ask at reception about local restaurants as some give discounts for members.

This area is rich in history, visit the The Battle Of Bannockburn Experience and the Wallace Monument in Stirling.

The old railway walk to the Falls and village is lovely.

There are watersports centres at Killin, Lochearnhead and Kenmore on Loch Tay.

Visit Callander which is on the road to Stirling or Kenmore, it is a pleasant town at the head of the loch.

The local fish and chip van is handy.

We had excellent days out at Stirling, Oban, Fort William and the stunning Falls of Dochart.

The walk down Pier Road to Loch Tay was undemanding and very scenic.

Go kayaking, swimming, walking, it's all close by. There are beautiful walks up Ben Lawers nature reserve.

The Killin Music Festival in June is fantastic. **||
