Things to do

1 Hereford Museum of Cider

Inside the old Bulmer's cider factory, the museum continues to collect and preserve the story of cider with objects and archival materials for future generations.

2 Hereford Guided Walks

These 90 minute strolls showcase the city's Saxon roots, Norman history and medieval architecture, including the famous Hereford Cathedral.

3 Small Breeds Farm Park

A varied collection of rare and miniature animals, birds and owls in a magical environment of outstanding natural beauty.

4 Oakchurch Country Store

Often referred to as the Harrods of Herefordshire, this is a culinary showcase for local farmers, growers and food and drink makers.

5 Brecon Beacons National Park

A spectacular protected landscape in southern Wales. Famous for its sweeping moorlands, dramatic red sandstone peaks and cascading waterfalls, it is world-renowned for hikers, nature lovers and stargazers.

6 Wyedean Canoe and Adventure Centre

Experience kayaking, canoeing and paddleboarding on the River Wye, with instruction and equipment hire by the hour and day, suitable for 4+.

7 Hereford

A cathedral city world-renowned for agriculture, Anglo-Saxon heritage and as the birthplace of the Hereford cattle. The medieval church contains the Mappa Mundi – the largest and oldest surviving world map.

8 Hay-on-Wye

A compact book-filled market town globally known as the world's first 'Town of Books'. The town reinvented itself in the 1960s as a literary destination and hosts the literature and arts Hay Festival every May.

ADULT ONLY campsite

Walk

There is a pretty circular walk close to site which takes in the old cider orchard and the now defunct railway bridges.

Cycle

The area is great for cycling between the pretty local towns and villages, including the Black and White Village Trail.

Information leaflets on local cycle routes are available.
