Visitor's top tips

Nevis Range Mountain Gondola

Take a day trip to Skye on the MV Glenachulish, the last manually operated turntable ferry in Scotland.

Visit www.walkhighlands.co.uk to find walking routes ranging from gentle 1km strolls to 8 hour mountain treks.

One of our favourite places is the village of Plockton - offering very peaceful walks and hotels serving good food.

The journey to Applecross is absolutely stunning, on the highest road in Britain.

Glenelg Inn served excellent food with incredible views to enjoy.

We loved the gondola journey up to Aonach Mor mountain, reaching up to 650 metres with spectacular views.

Visit beautiful Sandaig Bay, a peaceful spot which inspired Gavin Maxwell's Canysfearna in Ring of Bright Water.

From site, there are some glorious mountain biking routes - be sure to bring trailbikes along with you!

Just driving through the local area you'll see some spectacular scenery. You must see the Bealach na Ba pass, although don't attempt it when towing!
