Friars Cliff is a great place for amazing views across to the Isle of Wight. The sandy beach is dog friendly, with nearby parking, toilets and café serving amazing breakfasts and food all day.

Browns Fish and Chip Shop visits the site twice a week - the best ‘chippie’ you’ll ever come across.

Crabbing at Mudeford is great family fun.

Visit the Old Station Team Rooms at Holmsley, either by bike, car or walking through the Forest.

We really enjoyed taking the short ferry trip over to Hurst Castle, well worth the visit.

We did a pony trek with the Brockenhurst stables at Warren Farm. It was fabulous for me, my wife and our six year old.

There is a pizza van that calls on site on a Wednesday which is excellent and very convenient.

Burley is a great day out, with a variety of shops, a selection of nice pubs and tearooms, the cider pantry, wagon rides, there’s something for everyone.

Avon beach in Christchurch is a great sandy beach with easy parking, a café and shop close by.
