Visitor's top tips

Wallington

For dog owners, if you fancy a meal out in Rothbury, the Newcastle House, Turks Head and Queens Head pubs are all dog-friendly.

The butchers in the high street Rothbury have fantastic sausages and pies - give them a try!

We went to the Farne Islands to see the seals and sea birds, including puffins.

Hill walkers will enjoy the splendours of the nearby Simonside Hills.

The Dyke Neuk at Meldon is a lovely dog-friendly pub with excellent service and great food!

Definitely pay a visit to Hadrian's Wall, Belsay House, Wallington and Cragside.

Kielder Water & Forest Park is a wonderful day out for nature lovers, families, watersports enthusiasts and those looking to explore remote, stunning scenery.

Take a day out on the Aln Valley Railway, connecting Alnmouth to Alnwick.

Holy Island is home to lots of history and picturesque scenery - a must-see in Northumberland.

The site is close-by to the Wild Cattle of Chillingham, a lovely view!
