12 Darlington

With its range of shops, quality markets and continental cafes, Darlington makes a good day out. Also visit the Darlington Railway Centre & Museum.

13 Hawes

This pretty town still has a thriving market every Tuesday, and is known for being home to the Wensleydale Creamery, which is well worth a visit.

Visitor's top tips

There's a beautiful riverside walk in Richmond. Also a walk around Richmond Castle walls is a must.

We had some lovely meals in The Angel in Gilling West. It's dog friendly too.

You're not too far from High Force – it was a fabulous walk to one of the most dramatic waterfalls in the UK!

We had an excellent meal at The Black Bull near the A1.

The views from the top of the site are the best views right along the valley.

We downloaded a treasure trail of Richmond before leaving home from treasuretrails.co.uk and had fun exploring the town.

I would recommend a trip up Wensleydale and back down Swaledale. Visit Hawes!

The old station complex is a centre for many activities including swimming, walking, cinema and places to eat.

We did a lovely circular walk from Richmond to Easby Abbey, it was about 4 miles.
