Visitor's top tips

II The bluebells in the wood are in abundance just through the gate from the site.

Visit Portsdown Hill for fantastic views across the Solent, lovely walks, a picnic or a drink at The Churchillian.

Bere Forest has a great adventure play area for the children.

Be sure to visit the various tea rooms in Wickham, which is also a lovely place to wander around.

The village of Emsworth is an interesting place to visit.

A visit to Southsea is lovely.

Excellent service at The Kings Head in Wickham Square, which serves lovely food and is dog-friendly too!

If going to the Historic Dockyard use the excellent park and ride – it's easy to get to and the bus drops you right outside the dockyard.

A trip to Fort Nelson is a must.

The Naval Museum and Gunwharf Quays are great places to visit.

Arundel Castle isn't too far away, and is a nice day out. II
