Things to do

1 Portsmouth

A vibrant, maritime city, serving as a major Royal Navy base, with the iconic Portsmouth Historic Dockyard and the modern Spinnaker Tower.

2 Portsmouth Historic Dockyard

500 years of naval history within a working naval base. Including the iconic HMS Victory and the Mary Rose Museum with interactive exhibits.

3 RSPB Langstone Harbour

A vital wetland reserve with a diverse landscape of tidal mudflats, saltmarshes and seagrass meadows, providing a refuge for thousands of wintering and breeding seabirds.

4 Mid-Hants Railway Line

Known as the Watercress line, this heritage railway runs steam and diesel trains between Alresford and Alton through scenic South Downs countryside.

5 Blue Reef Aquarium

An award-winning, family-friendly attraction showcasing diverse marine life from local British waters of The Solent to tropical coral reefs.

6 Marwell Zoo

A charity-run zoo dedicated to conservation and education, home to hundreds of exotic and endangered animals, including giraffes, tigers and leopards.

7 Go Ape – Southampton

An outdoor adventure playground with high-ropes courses, ziplines, Tarzan Swings and forest activities in the woodland treetops.

8 Chichester

A cultural hub and popular destination with a 12th Century Cathedral, pedestrianised streets and a vibrant arts scene including the Chichester Festival Theatre.

9 Winchester

This culturally rich medieval city is home to many attractions including The Great Hall and The Sally Ports.

10 Southampton

A charming waterfront city with centuries of maritime history, including the SeaCity Museum, containing an interactive model of the Titanic.
