Walk

9 Local routes

Walk from the site entrance down the lane to Roman Road and Middle Winterslow - a laminated route is available from reception.

10 Clarendon Way

The Clarendon Way runs from Salisbury to Winchester. It gets its name from Clarendon Park on the eastern edge of Salisbury.

Explore

12 Winchester

From world-class attractions and architecture, excellent shopping and dining, to countryside trails for walking and cycling, there's plenty to do in and around Winchester.

13 Salisbury Museum

Situated in the medieval King's House, the museum has fantastic collections, events and exhibitions year round.

Cycle

11 Salisbury

There is limited cycling directly from the site, but Salisbury has several cycle trails to help you explore the city. From Salisbury you can also cycle to Old Sarum and, if you want to go further afield, on to Amesbury and Stonehenge. See www.visitwiltshire.co.uk/salisbury to download a route map.

Visitor's top tips

Stonehenge

The Museum of Army Flying has a café with a veranda where you can watch helicopters taking off and landing.

Walk up Danebury Hillfort, the views are spectacular and it's brilliant for dog walking.

For delicious cheeses, Artisan breads and fresh local products visit Salisbury Charter Market on Tuesdays and Saturdays.

Go for afternoon tea in the Cathedral, it is lovely.

The walking tour of Salisbury from the Information Centre gives an excellent overview of the city.

Stonehenge is within driving distance and is a must see.

We enjoyed lots of trips out including Stourhead, Bowood House and Gardens, Old Sarum, Houghton Lodge Gardens, Great Chatfield Manor and Gardens, Old Wardour Castle.

The sculpture park in East Winterslow is well-worth a visit.
