Explore

10 St David's

Steeped in history, Britain's smallest city is famous for its spectacular cathedral, which was the final resting place of the Patron Saint of Wales.

11 Solva

This harbour village boasts a beautiful quay and charming, quirky high street.

12 Pembroke

A charming walled town home to a Norman Castle and rich, medieval heritage; the birthplace of Henry VII.

Visitor's top tips

Blue Lagoon, Abereiddi

The Bishops Pub in St David's offers excellent food and a great selection of beers. It's also dog-friendly.

For the freshest fish and chips try the famous 'Shed Bistro' in Porthgain.

You can book discounted boat trips with the site staff. Go via bus from outside the site (May to September) as parking is limited.

Walk or cycle to St David's, the UK's smallest city - the cathedral is not to be missed.

We loved the coastal walk to Whitesands, where you can see birds, sea life and wild ponies on Carn Llidi and St David's Head.

There is a fantastic golf course under 5 minutes from site, which overlooks spectacular scenery.

The Blue Lagoon is a definite must-see in the area; bordered by gorgeous beaches and craggy cliffs, it is ideal for watersports.

The Marina in Pembroke Dock is a lovely spot to relax and soak up beautiful views.

Pembroke Castle is a brilliant visit, and the town is lovely too - full of interesting history.

You are spoiled for choice with over 50 stunning beaches, all linked via the Pembrokeshire Coastal Path.
