TREDEGAR HOUSE COUNTRY PARK CYCLE ROUTE

This route takes in parts of two National Routes of the National Cycle Network. Route 4 runs from London to the west coast of Wales and Route 47 starts at Newport and finishes at Fishguard, providing the inland alternatives for the Celtic Trail Cycle route. The ride starts from Tredegar House main car park and takes in Newport, the River Usk, Newport Castle and the Monmouthshire & Brecon Canal. (An optional detour on Route 49 runs north to Pontypool, connecting with Route 492 to the World Heritage Site at Blaenavon).

TRAFFIC

Traffic-free with some road crossings.

SUITABILITY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN ✓

Yes, 10+ years old. Care should be taken at all times and children should be constantly supervised.

OTHER ROUTES IN THE AREA

National Route 4 heads eastwards to Newport Wetlands and Chepstow, and westwards to Caerphilly.

National Route 47 to Pontypridd and the Taff Trail.

National Route 49 to Pontypool (connecting with NCN 492 to Blaenavon).

DIRECTIONS

- 1 Starting from the Club Site, follow the National Cycle Network signs via the main car park of Tredegar House to the black and white barriers. Continue on Route 4 of the NCN into the city of Newport around its southern edge.
- 2 Turn left on to National Route 47 at the new bridge across the River Usk, on the site of the entrance lock of the old town dock.
- 3 Continue past the remains of Newport Castle.
- 4 Continue behind Sainsbury's store, alongside the River Usk.
- 5 Turn left after riding beside the river, passing under and over the 'Old Rising Sun' intersection.
- 6 Ride along the towpath of the Monmouthshire & Brecon Canal, passing the start of NCN 49 to Pontypool at Malpas Junction.
- 7 Fourteen Locks Canal and Visitor Centre is a good location to have a picnic and is the end of the route. Follow the route in reverse back to the Club Site.

This route has been suggested by Sustrans' Volunteer Rangers. The Caravan Club would always recommend that any children or young people under 18 years should be fully supervised by a responsible adult. Please be aware that using this route is entirely at your own risk. Extreme care should always be taken when cycling on site, remembering that traffic will be moving around the site and to observe speed limits. Particular attention should be paid when going round blind corners or emerging from paths.
