The walk to Tintagel and Boscastle is stunning. The views, especially the sunsets, are breathtaking.

Peregrines nest outside site and along the coast, and you can see large auk colonies in breeding season.

Visit Port Isaac to see the Doc Martin set.

Walk from Daymer bay to Rock then catch the ferry to Padstow. Beautiful walk.

Trebarwith Strand is awesome at high tide on a windy day, followed by a pint in the Port William looking over the bay.

There's a lovely cafe at Tintagel Brewery which serves superb breakfasts with excellent-quality ingredients.

The National Trust's Boscastle Village is absolutely beautiful, with a pretty harbour, cosy pubs and lots of scenic walking trails.

The Port William pub offers wonderful food, great views and is dog-friendly!

We loved the bay at Crackington Haven, with spectacular views and wildlife, as well as a lovely bistro cafe and family pub.

A fish & chip and pizza van visited the site which was a nice touch.

The walks here are absolutely incredible, but we would definitely recommend bringing sturdy footwear for the rugged terrain.
