Visitor's top tips

Leamington Spa

The Saturday Market in Warwick is worth a visit for local produce.

Warwick is a lovely old town with lots of places to sit, have a coffee and watch the world go by. If you want to walk into the historic town, the map provided in the information room is very useful.

We use the Four Penny Pub, very close to site, for a lovely atmosphere and excellent meals.

The folk festival in July is worth visiting.

Leamington Spa is a lovely town to visit.

The garden just outside and beneath the castle walls are lovely. We hired a motor boat on the river which gave us a lovely view of the castle.

Coventry Motor Museum is well-worth a visit.

The walk to Hatton Locks is a nice, easy walk from site with a cafe and pub at the lock.
